

Welcome to The Move!

The Move is a member-based non-profit organization, run for and by the community. By becoming a member of The Move, you are joining an amazing community of people who love to dance. Although nothing is required of you once you become a member, it gives you the opportunity to be involved with how the Move operates.

Acknowledgement of Membership & Responsibilities

By signing below and entering the dance, I am becoming a member of The Move Dance Collective and agree to the following:

- I recognise that my participation in the dance involves inherent risks and I agree to take full responsibility for my experience and for any injury that might result from my participation.
- I agree to waive all claims against The Move Dance Collective and its facilitators and officers.
- I have the right to attend and vote at the Annual General Meeting.
- I agree that it is my responsibility do the following:
 - 1) Inform one of the facilitators each time I come to The Move if I have a health condition that might put me at risk.
 - 2) To avoid dancing at The Move if I have an illness that might be contracted by others.

We look forward to dancing with you!
